Pick urged an increase in the 15 per cent tax allowance for depletion of mineral deposits. He pointed out that the oil industry gets a 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance.

The Colorado plateau where Pick operates extends over parts of Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona.

Inventory of State's Road Needs Slated

BOISE, Feb. 25.—Road inventories covering the six state highways districts are being prepared by the state highway department as part of its comprehensive "road needs" study.

J. C. Parker, Moscow, chairman of a special highway needs committee of the Idaho Association of Good Roads and Highways, said district commissioners are to determine which are the principal arterial secondary roads in their district and return their reports to the department for further consideration.

Parker and his committee met with State Highway Engineer Earl V. Miller earlier this week to discuss the survey and to inform the department that it had the full support of his organization.

Miller said the study is to determine the needs of all rural roads and highways and city streets in order to arrive at a realistic cost figure of the overall road needs in Idaho.

Other meetings between department officials and district road commissioners are to be held early in March, Parker said.

Several other groups in the upper Snake river valley also have protested the proposal on grounds it could not fit into future plans for a super highway between Pocatello and West Yellowstone.

Which Part is most important?

THE ANSWER, as you know, is that the engine and the steering wheel are equally important. If either part were missing, the car couldn't function.

The same principle applies to our American industrial system. It takes both "Capital" and "Labor" to make it work.

With willing investors to provide tools, and skilled workers to man them efficiently, American industry has reached the highest level of production in history — and Americans enjoy the highest living standard.

Would any reasonable person deny the investor's right to a fair return for risking his savings, any more than the worker's right to a fair wage? Of course not.

Communists, however, aren't reasonable people. They desperately want to break up our "winning combination." But when they trot out their phony arguments, trying to set one group against another, Americans just look around them and reply "Our system really gives us what you only promise. We like what we've got — and we'll keep it!"

Another winning combination: Americans and the nation's banks in which they deposit. Our staff believes that our bank's success depends largely on the success we help our depositors to achieve. On that basis, we invite your account.

2. We are the most common southern South America, Australia, Africa and Polynesia.

3. The largest, and foot-long, weighing a pound, is the carrier. Lives in the tropics; the smallest, only an inch long, lives on my bottom.

4. My sticky legs are the front of my mouth. I can fly from my trunk, but when the air is warm, I wiggle the mouth back—wiggles the mouth back—wiggles the garden peas inside.

5. This action is lightning fast.

6. Capability. Some of us lived to most.

7. I lay eggs which make in the thousands. One male tries them in tiny holes where they hatch.

8. The legs carry the around his legs and some lay them in the trees; but most lay the water where they are common.

Navy Checks Stolen in '44 Being Passed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (U)—The secret service disclosed Thursday that 10 years ago someone stole 5,000 blank government checks that have now begun to show up in retail stores across the country.

The service announced a nationwide search for a man alleged to be the chief forger in cashing the checks. It called him "No. 1 fugitive."

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman told newsmen the man is George William Schneider, a 31-year-old convicted forger.

Baughman said Schneider, who was released from prison at Sacramento, Calif., after serving a term for forgery in 1931, had been identified as passing a number of 5,000 navy checks missing since 1944.

Schneider undoubtedly has accomplices," Baughman said. He said two other passers had been described and that in addition a woman may be cashing the missing checks.

Issued in 1944

The missing checks were issued to T. E. Brew, a navy disbursing officer at Newport, R. I., in 1944. Baughman said Brew "is in the clear," and that his accounts had been cleared by the government.

Baughman said the checks disappeared when Brew was transferred to Guam in 1944 and the 5,000 blank checks which had been issued to him as a disbursing officer were shipped from Norfolk, Va., to San Francisco, Calif., where they disappeared from a Railway Express Agency office.

Plants for Power May Be Replaced By Atom Battery

WASH. JOSE, Calif., Feb. 24 (U)—Development of the atomic battery on a large scale could make power plants with their cumbersome machinery obsolete, a General Electric company engineer from the Hartford, Wash., works asserted today.

Such an advance would make many steam turbines, boilers and huge generators, now representing billions of dollars in investment, as antiquated as the obsolete Dr. Zerkowling told a group of industrialists and educators.

Dr. Zerkowling is head of the engineering department at the Hartford atomic energy installation.

The first atomic battery was produced recently by the Radio Corporation of America. It converts atomic energy directly into electric current, but on a very small scale.

However, it is the first break in scientific research indicating that electric power some day may come from something besides big generators.

Great Needs for Teachers Listed

NAMPA, Feb. 24 (U)—The majority of college graduates will have to enter the teaching profession within the next 10 years if there are to be enough teachers in public schools, a teachers' conference here was told.

Alvin Allen of the College of Idaho staff addressed the 400 teachers at a conference sponsored by the Idaho Education Association.

Lorne Hendricks of Idaho State College said "Idaho is one of only eight states in the U. S. which does not have publicly supported kindergarten."

Safety Discussed At Pilot Meeting

Aviation safety discussions and films highlighted a meeting of about 20 Twin Falls area pilots Wednesday evening at the Jodelin field administration building.

Leading discussions were I. G. Wilcox, senior CAA inspector; Thomas Smith, CAA maintenance inspector; and Gerald Hopkins, CAA aeronautics inspector. All spoke.

Similar meetings have been held in Blackfoot, Idaho Falls and Pocatello.

Two Car Makers Warn Dealers on "Bootleg" Sales

DETROIT, Feb. 24 (U)—The president of Ford and General Motors are warning their car dealers "bootlegging," with hints that offenders may lose their franchises.

Henry Ford II and GM's Harlow H. Curtis, acknowledging less than satisfactory conditions in the field, wrote thousands of dealers on the subject.

Neither said to what specific extent the practice was followed. However, Curtis said it was spreading "in an alarming fashion."

There has been no like action by Chrysler, third member of the auto industry's "big three."

Curtis denounced bootlegging as a "malpractice" and a threat to the car business.

Bootlegging is the wholesaling by franchised dealers of new cars to used car retailers who sell them at less than the list price.

Protests by franchised dealers reportedly prompted the National Automobile Dealers Association to appeal to manufacturers to put a halt to bootlegging.

Charles G. Freed, NADA president, and Frederick J. Bell, executive vice president, have been in Detroit this evening with top auto executives.

Study of Grazing Fees Is Opposed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (U)—Should a study be made of the fairness of fees charged for the use of grazing lands in the nation's forests? Vernon Metcalf, Reno, Nev., told a "house" agriculture committee of the Senate today.

Metcalf said permit holders for years have paid higher and higher fees because they are computed according to the price of beef. Now that the price of beef is going down, graziers are benefitting from the lower fees.

Report Notes Idaho School Revise Gains

BOISE, Feb. 24 (U)—State school reorganization Director George E. Denman reports that 20 million dollars in school bonds now are outstanding in Idaho and that some 60,000 school children are being transported to and from their classes each day in school buses.

"The objectives of the 1941 school reorganization law appear to be well on the way toward realization," he added, through "equalized educational opportunity for all children, greater uniformity of school tax rates and more education for the school child."

But Denman said it would be impossible to calculate the effect on the reorganization of a suit filed recently in district court in Grangeville, challenging the constitutionality of the law.

He said he felt the suit would not impair the progress of school bonds, although two Washington state investment firms announced later they would refuse to buy construction bonds issued by the Troy school district until the suit is settled.

Denman said that reorganization of Idaho's school districts is now 99 per cent complete, and that the number of districts had been reduced from 1,142 to 206 in the past year.

He said that 85 per cent of Idaho's 180,000 school children are now enrolled in 104 districts, 80 of which are class A, each with over two million state valuation and 25 teachers.

The state's 44 class A and B districts all operate both elementary and high schools.

Denman said that countywide districts have been established and that 25 of the state's 44 counties have been reorganized completely, with their county boards of education and county superintendents abolished.

Guard Helicopter Planned for State

BOISE, Feb. 24 (U)—Ground units of the Idaho national guard are scheduled to receive a helicopter in December, Col. Carl L. Cernberg, U. S. property and disbursing officer, announced.

A pilot and mechanic must be trained and storage facilities constructed before the helicopter will be delivered. It will replace one of the small planes now used by ground units.

Highway Closed By Blowing Dust

RITZVILLE, Wash., Feb. 24 (U)—A heavy dust storm that dropped visibility to zero closed a main cross-state highway between here and Moses Lake Thursday.

It was so bad that you couldn't see anything in there, the state patrolman said. Traffic was being rerouted over secondary roads.

High winds whipped dust from fields in the Columbia basin and choked off the 40-mile stretch of highway.

Congress Action Completed on '53 Sugar Program

IDAHO FALLS, Feb. 24 (U)—No further legislation affecting the sugar industry is contemplated this year, Arvid Miller, Shelby, president of the Idaho Sugar Beet Growers association said following his return from a policy meeting at Washington, D. C.

Miller is a member of the legislative subcommittee of the policy committee of the United States Beet Growers association, which conferred with the joint agricultural committee of the senate and house.

The conference decided that an attempt will be made to increase the sugar quota or attempt to amend the sugar act, Miller said.

The meeting was called at the insistence of Louisiana cane growers who sought an increased production quota in their area, he said.

We anticipate that as soon as politically feasible, the present sugar act will be overhauled to that the best interests will get their share of increased consumption due to an increase in population," he said.

Reading Trucker Freud of Charge

RAWLINS, Wyo., Feb. 24 (U)—Truck Driver John A. Manguso, Denver, has been found innocent of reading while driving his truck 40 miles per hour.

When Manguso appeared in Rawlins traffic court on the charge, a patrolman testified he saw Manguso reading a book. The officer said Manguso was driving about 40 miles per hour on U. S. highway 20 east of Rawlins at the time.

In finding Manguso innocent, the court said there was not sufficient evidence to establish his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Husband Prefers Brownie Dessert In Form of Pie

A dessert with a rich, chocolatey flavor which any housewife might want to try is Mrs. Frank Piza's chocolate brownie pie. Mrs. Piza's husband likes brownies so well that when she came across the recipe for the brownie pie in a magazine she decided "trying" it was a must.

Their children, Diane and Ron, also lend their approval to the dessert.

Chocolate brownie pie can be served either warm or cold, as the family prefers. When Mrs. Piza serves it as a warm dish she tops it with whipped cream and when cold, with a scoop of ice cream.

Chocolate Brownie Pie

Mrs. Piza recommends that the housewife use her own pastry recipe. After the pastry is made, mix together over hot water 2 squares of unsweetened chocolate and 2 table-spoons butter.

Beat together thoroughly with a rotary beater 3 large eggs and 1/2 cup sugar, the chocolate mixture and 1/4 cup dark corn syrup.

Mix in 1/2 cup pecan halves or 1/4 cup chopped walnuts. Place in an ungreased pie shell and bake for 40 or 50 minutes at 375 degrees.

Lessons Given

Grand Guardian Will Be Honored By Valley Bethel

WENDELL, Feb. 26—Plans were made for the official visit of the grand guardian of Idaho, Mrs. Samuel E. Tyson, Parma, at the meeting of Wendell Bethel No. 12, Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday evening at the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Tyson, who will visit the Wendell Bethel March 10, will be honored at a tea for about 100 members at 4 p.m. with Mrs. Claude Campbell, Bethel guardian, as hostess. A banquet will be served at 6:30 p.m. at the temple dining room. Rosa Adams is in charge of the table decorations, which will feature the grand guardian's theme, "Friendship."

At the meeting following the banquet, initiatory work will be given for six candidates. Special invitations have been sent to neighboring Bethels to attend the session. Members of the Order of Eastern Star and Masonic lodges are invited to be present.

Money for the grand guardian's project of the year is to be collected at the next meeting and will go toward a local community project of the Bethel members' choice.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Fathers and mothers ought to be the censors of their children's reading and not leave that important task to outsiders, however well intentioned. The liberty to read what one wishes to read is a most precious one and if it is not safeguarded by the individual citizen we shall all lose it and as reading is the chief source of learning, of communicating thought, the loss would be irreparable.

Children, being as they are, impressionable and inexperienced, should be trained and taught about the selection of their books. This should be done when the children get their first books, their picture book. Someone helps them to "read" it and there and then their training begins, tastes are set, ideals of thought and behavior take form.

Pictures are story tellers of great attractiveness, great power, so we ought to be careful about the picture books. Every picture book a child gets should be looked over first by his father or mother in order to make certain the family approves of the story it tells. This practice ought to be extended to the "comics" that are so popular.

I have seen some acceptable "comics." The stories they told were interesting—the ideas morally sound, the language good. The children liked them because they were easy to understand and the stories were thrilling.

I have seen some that no child, no adolescent youth, should have. The pictures were lurid and the stories were bad. Why anybody would want to place such things in the hands of children, and youthful students is beyond my understanding. I am sure that good pictures and decent stories would find just as good a sale.

Stammering is caused by fear, shock or excitement. Dr. Felt explains the cause and also includes how to overcome stammering in his book, "Stammering." The book is a copy, sent 10 cents in coin to him, 176 Times-News, P. O. Box 18, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Snowdrop Lodge Features History For Anniversary

HAILEY, Feb. 26—Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. W. J. Fairman, Mrs. O. S. Farnum, Mrs. Frank Morrison, Mrs. Charlie Price and Mrs. Lillian Hammon, past noble grand of Snowdrop Rebekah lodge, presented the program celebrating the 40th anniversary of the order Tuesday evening at the IOOF hall.

Mrs. Fairman told the history of the lodge as taken from the diary of her father, the late Alvin Price, a lifelong member of the IOOF and Rebekah lodges. The diary is the only record which has been found of the Seven Star Rebekah lodge No. 6, which was instituted in Ketchum in 1888 and was active less than three years.

Fourteen years later Snowdrop Rebekah was instituted and Mrs. Price had noted that the organ which is being used by Snowdrop lodge was purchased jointly by Alctura lodge and Seven Star lodge in 1902.

In 1888 the Odd Fellows conferred the Rebekah degree on several women, but the lodge was not able to attend the IOOF meetings. In 1888 the Ketchum lodges borrowed regalia for those having received the Rebekah degree from the Hailey IOOF lodge, which was instituted that year.

It also was noted that all records of the Hailey Rebekah lodge were destroyed in the fire of 1888.

It was announced at the meeting that Mrs. Ruby Hartman, Parma, assembly president, will make her official visit to the lodge April 13.

Shake the can and prove it!

M-J-B's full flavor roast means more measures to the pound—more flavor in every measure.

See for yourself

Shake several cans of coffee before you buy. Most brands rattle—but not MJB! It's packed solid. Proof of more measures—and extra flavor, because...

Fully-developed roast expands each coffee bean in MJB's rich blend. This brings out more flavor, and increases volume, too—gives you 2 to 8 measures more per pound than other brands.

Full-flavor grind makes each particle of MJB exactly the right size for your coffee maker to release all the goodness. No large lumps to clog or small particles to slip through to dilute the goodness.

RICHFIELD, Feb. 26.—The Shoshone Indians grabbed off first spot in the No. class B sub-district tournament here Thursday by defeating Richfield 57-24 in an overtime game at the Shoshone gymnasium. The win was the third in a row for the Indians in tourney play and they are now one of top billing in the sub-district playoffs. In the other game of the night, the Wolverines sneaked out a 30-29 victory over the close 52-50 win over Bellevue. Richfield and Halley, both of whom have lost one game in the tourney, will play Friday night for runner-up honors in the tournament and a spot in the class B tournament that begins at Rupert next week.

HANSEN, Feb. 26 — The Kimberly Bulldogs clinched the class B district finals as they eliminated the Lehigh Valley Vikings from the Southside sub-district play by a 28-14 score here Thursday. The Bulldogs, by virtue of the

Fights Another Spokane Fight

Underdog in Perez Fight

NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (U. S. A.)—Burnett is a 27-year-old Chicago Negro who has been campaigning with mild success in the Midwest. Matthews, 32, knocked out Jack Nelson, Salt Lake City, in 1:16 of the first round here Feb. 9.

Although the 10-rounder (8 p.m. MST) will be broadcast (ABC) coast to coast, there has been so much interest around in the youngster-veteran contest that the promoting, International Boxing club expects a crowd of around 9,000 and a gate of $30,000 or more.

Low Vicinal, manager of Willy Harry, while beefing up his north-west stock.

That stock crashed under the right hook of Rocky Marciano in 1952, but advanced a few points last summer in Seattle when Mat-athletic commission.

At the same time, boxer sloners George Jones and Jahan tied up $4,770 of purse pending a full-scale March 10, when chairman

Willie said "it will do over $40,000. They've got a special train coming down from Connecticut for the first time in years. They all want to know if Willie still has anything left."

That's the intriguing lure of the fight: Will the Hartford boxing master enough stamina left to go a fast 10 rounds with the fleet youngster from Brooklyn? The betting favors Perez at 5-1.
